SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

Lance Pough,

Plaintiff,

v.

Mike DeWine, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:21-cv-880

Magistrate Judge Gentry

Judge Michael H. Watson

ORDER

On July 5, 2022, Magistrate Judge Gentry issued a Report and Recommendation (“R&R”) recommending the Court grant Plaintiff’s motion to strike certain of Defendants’ affirmative defenses. R&R, ECF No. 62. The R&R notified the parties of their right to object to the recommendation contained therein and further notified the parties that a failure to timely object would result in a forfeiture of the right to de novo review by the Court as well as a forfeiture of the right to appeal the Court’s decision adopting the R&R. Id. at 11–12. The time for objecting has passed, and no objections were filed. Accordingly, the Court ADOPTS the R&R without further review and GRANTS Plaintiff’s motion to strike, ECF No. 44.

The Clerk shall terminate ECF Nos. 44 and 62.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

MICHAEL H. WATSON, JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
